

Norfolk Online Poll 9 November 2018

Department of Agriculture and Water Resources (DAWR)

DAWR's decision to lessen inspection requirements for importation of dogs, cats and horses which has increased the risk to Norfolk of the arrival of paralysis tick and bot fly? Do you think that DAWR had too much power on Norfolk Island to make the wrong decision with no consequences to the department but very damaging consequences to Norfolk Island?

ANSWER CHOICES-	RESPONSES-
Yes	95.65%
No	4.35%